ORGANISATION INFORMATION

EDUCARE (DADA CHI SHALA) EDUCATIONAL TRUST Regarding Dada Chi Shala

We established Dada Chi Shala in 2019 with the goal of providing free, high-quality education. The creator of Dada Chi Shala, Mr. Abhijeet Pokharnikar, had the chance to collaborate with Dr. Sau Sindhutai Sapkal (Maai).

Indian social worker and activist Sindhutai Sapkal is most recognized for her work in parenting orphaned children in India. In the social work category, she received Padma Shri in 2021.

Dr. Sau Sindhutai Sapkal (Maai) is an inspiration for Abhijeet. "Once you feel the pain of society, then you can work for them and find your happiness," Maai used to remark. Then Abhijeet began this admirable initiative for the impoverished and street children in conjunction with his pals Shubham, Anjali, and Snehal started this good cause for the underprivileged and street kids in India.

Regarding the founder...

The brain behind Dada Chi Shala are 23-year-old social worker Abhijeet Pokharnikar, who is from Pune, Maharashtra. Children from low-income families who live on the streets can now receive free schooling thanks to this initiative. Dada Chi Shala was founded by Abhijeet.

A number of communities have been influenced by Dada Chi Shala. During the COVID-19 shutdown, 1700 disadvantaged and street children across India were mainstreamed into education support, moving them away from begging and into classrooms. The Dada Chi Shala has changed the lives of almost 700 street children by removing them from the position of begging, improving legal literacy in the communities, using cutting-edge teaching methods on tablets, encouraging youth involvement, providing access to social welfare, and implementing government programs.
